

Essential employment law, HR, health & safety and COVID-19 support

Available to you free for 90 days with no obligation

Delivered by the Outset Group, specialists in legal and consultancy services, Primed has been specifically designed to provide you with vital resources that add real value to your business.

If you've been meaning to update your employment contract templates and key policies, need guidance on how to manage employee issues or you're looking to enhance health & safety compliance to reduce the risk of incidents and resulting claims, Primed will provide you with everything you need, including peace of mind.

With access to an online knowledge system, Primed offers over 600 template documents, policies, guidance notes and FAQs covering employment law & HR, health & safety and information security. Essential resources relating to COVID-19, including support with furloughing employees are also included and will be constantly maintained and updated as the situation develops.

Primed also includes useful tools such as a Compliance Register which will help you keep on top of all important dates e.g. contract expiry, renewals and certifications.

In light of the current crisis, we have made the system available free of charge for 90 days with no obligation to continue after this period. During that time you'll have full access to all resources which are kept updated by lawyers.

Key features:

- Frequently updated with new content in line with changing legislation
- Template documents to download and use
- Accessible 24/7
- Developed by experts
- Wide ranging support across employment law, HR, health & safety and up to date COVID-19 guidance
- No payment required*

To access these essential resources click here.

*For security purposes, card details are required but no payment is taken. You will not be billed after the 90 days, your subscription will just end and your card details will not remain on file.

If you'd like to hear more about Primed and the services offered from the Outset Group, contact us:

Mark O'Shaughnessy

E: mark.oshaughnessy@outsetuk.com

DD: 01622 474 156

M: 07701 362 446

www.primed.co.uk

primed

Part of the Outset Group